Financially Complex Domestic Relations

The law firm of Treiser Collins accepts select Domestic Relations matters. Due to the deep emotional and financial impact on individuals, families, and owners of businesses, handling such issues with the proper sensitivity and perspective requires more than a technical knowledge of family law. It requires an acute awareness of the psychological ripples that the parties involved are currently experiencing ? and will experience once the matter at hand is resolved.

Mr. Treiser has over 30 years experience handling complex matrimonial matters. The group represents clients in various courts, but also works to resolve matters through negotiations and alternative dispute resolution, including mediation and arbitration. Our range of services includes:

- Dissolution of marriage
- Alimony and temporary support
- Equitable distribution, asset division and liability
- Trials and appeals
- Modification and contempt
